

10 simple actions museums can take in support of the Fridays For Future movement

Most of the ideas below are simple to achieve but do require some preparation. Some directly support the global strike (1-5), others are more museum-y (6-10). Pick what suits you and your organization.

1. WELCOME STRIKERS IN YOUR MUSEUM.

Your toilets, tap water, and comfortable seating are assets to strikers.

6. TELL THE STORY OF YOUNG ACTIVISTS FROM OTHER TIMES AND PLACES.

Create a display showing how movements work and create change.

2. HOLD A CHILDREN'S ASSEMBLY ABOUT A SUSTAINABLE FUTURE.

That way, parents are free to march.

7. SELL ONLY LOCAL, PLANT-BASED FOOD IN YOUR RESTAURANT.

One day is feasible.
And then another. And another.

3. PROVIDE SPACE FOR TEACH-INS, SIGN MAKING, WORKSHOPS.

Offer your workshop spaces and other rooms in advance to organizers.

8. MAKE ONE PART OF YOUR MUSEUM'S OPERATIONS SUSTAINABLE.

The utility bill, transport, packaging ... anything. If you change one thing every time there is a strike, soon you'll be green as grass!

4. GO ON #ArtStrike, PUT AN OBJECT ON STRIKE.

9. PROMOTE THE USE OF PUBLIC TRANSPORT TO GET TO YOUR MUSEUM.

Give detailed directions and don't fail to mention the convenience.

5. ARCHIVE AND CREATE A DISPLAY OF THE STRIKE.

Document this all-important movement for posterity, together with the strikers.

10. STOP ACCEPTING MONEY FROM FOSSIL FUEL COMPANIES.

Due diligence on all your funders:
no artwashing, no greenwashing.

We encourage all museum professionals to join the strike, and all managers and leaders lend their support. Take photos of your actions and share them with the #MuseumsForFuture hashtag.
